

Notable Works

The Virtual Earth Day Celebration

Premiered on April 22, 2021 at 7pm. The virtual event featured original poems included in two of the Notable Works' recent publications- "Voices of the Earth: The Future of Our Planet, Volumes I and II" Included here are links to Parts I-III of the presentation.

Shelter in Place

Tina Cane, Poet Laureate of Rhode Island

Part I

There's a Rift of Emerald in the Hill

Noreen Inglesi, Artist in Residence, Notable Works; Produced by Noreen Inglesi and Bina Gehres

More

Sarah Lettes

Storm

Thomas Lane

Videography Randy Yorston

Part II

Energy of Change

Patricia McAlpine

The Council

Karina Lutz - Highlighting the efforts of the Environment Council of Rhode Island (ECRI)

Interview with Priscilla De La Cruz, President, Environment Council of Rhode Island

Karina Lutz

Part III

These Woods

Aubrey Atwater

Produced by Noreen Inglesi and Bina Gehres

Resilience

David Dragone

We Walk On These Treasured Lands

Noreen Inglesi, Highlighting the conservation efforts of the Rhode Island Land Trust Council

The Whirly Birds

Janet Barron

Presentation by Alicia Lehrer,

Executive Director, Woonasquatucket River Watershed Council

All Pitching In Makes A Difference

Noreen Inglesi

Produced by Noreen Inglesi and Bina Gehres; Highlighting the dedicated work of WRWC.

Performed by the Notable Works Ensemble:

Tina Bernard, vocals; Maria Bilyeu, cello; Dalita Getzoyan, flute; Noreen Inglesi, vocals; and Alison Shea, Piano

Full Interview with Priscilla De La Cruz

Karina Lutz